Premessa

L'esistenza umana, si dice, viaggia tra due oceani, entrambi fatti di nostalgia e abitati da mostri che nessuno ricorda o riesce più a nominare.

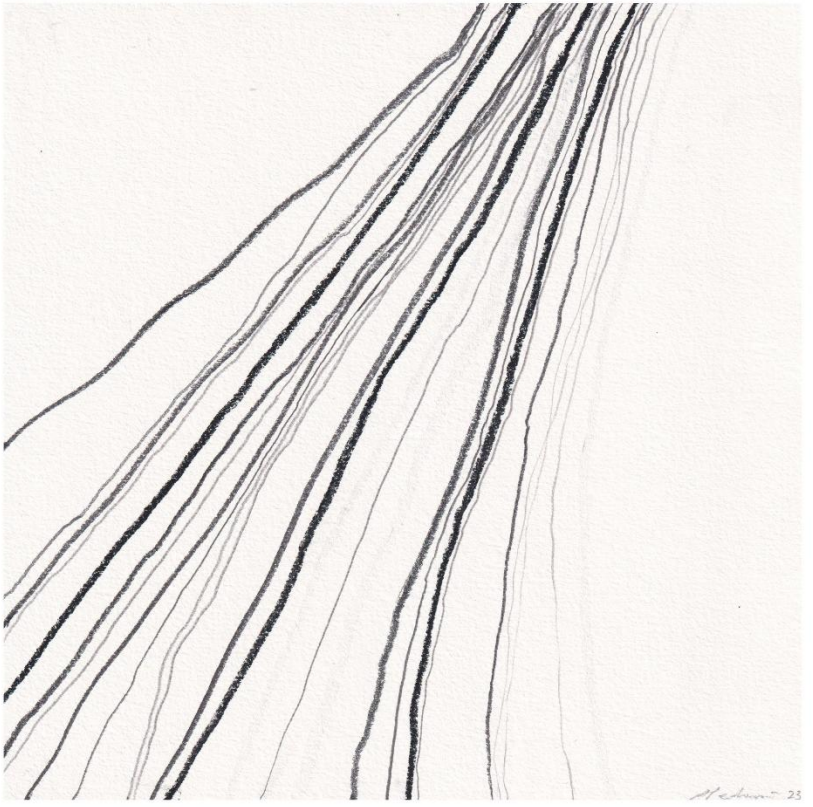

Un terzo mare, però, viaggia con noi, collegando - dall'alto al basso - il mondo degli angeli (ammesso che esistano, altrimenti vanno bene anche le stelle o gli uccelli) con quello dei nostri piedi.

Piedi che camminano in punta, per paura di bagnarsi, di scivolare, di perdere qualcosa nella caduta. E, infatti, ci sfuggono di mano le occasioni, perdiamo il tempo giusto con le persone e restiamo per un attimo immobili, increduli.

Sotto piogge infinite che ci lavano le emozioni, ormai inutili per mancanza cronica di racconto.
