

De Bestiarum Naturis 366 – the Terrestrial Toucan

*Stepping on certain tiles in the house where I lived as a child,
I always met the Toucan and we said hello.
In 2014, during the visits to sell the empty apartment, I took a photo of it and drew the Terrestrial Toucan.
So, every morning I still receive his greeting.*

DBN 366 – THE TERRESTRIAL TOUCAN

Drawing
indian ink, graphite and acrylic on paper
cm. 23.8 x 16.2
2014

for more information
debestiarumnaturis@gmail.com